

Co-author declaration

This form must be signed by the PhD candidate, the principal supervisor (where he/she is a co-author), and the other two most central authors. The corresponding author must be among them.

PhD candidate
Principal supervisor
Authors
Title
Journal

The PhD candidate's contribution to the article
1. Formulation/identification of the scientific problem
2. Planning of the experiments and methodology design, including selection of methods and method development
3. Involvement in the experimental work
4. Presentation, interpretation and discussion in a journal article format of obtained data

Date	Signature