

PROGRAMME FACE TO FACE, Monday October 29th-November 2nd.

	09:00	12:00	13:00	17:00	19:00
Sunday October 30 th			Cultural activities. A question of ethics- discussions about national similarities and differences.	Looking at informants and collecting data	Evening meal at the hotel
Monday October 29 th		Welcome to MaCE Face to Face! We meet at USN Campus Porsgrunn for lunch.	- Cultural exchange- a short introduction to Norway and Telemark - Preparing for the week - Co-creation. Preparations for working together locally, nationally and internationally.	Free time	Evening meal at the Hotel
Tuesday October 30 th	The Indirect Approach Recap from the teaching from Session 4. Introduction of different formats of interviews. We do some group work with 3 students in each group to practice on the Indirect Approach. The three students each take different roles, and take turns during the group work: - one student interviewing - one student observing - one student being interviewed.	Lunch at Campus Porsgrunn	After lunch, we continue practicing on our interviewing skills. 15:00 Field trip There will be a choice between two places you can visit: Meierigården Youth Culture House in Porsgrunn Or a College in Porsgrunn	Outdoor activities in the area nearby the hotel. It's possible to go for a hike and have a bonfire or play Frisbee golf etc.	We all meet at the Hotel for an Evening meal and activities.

PROGRAMME FACE TO FACE, Monday October 29th-November 2nd.

Wednesday October 31st	Some volunteer pupils from USNs neighbour school has agreed to help us out practicing our role as interviewers. Two and two will interview together, one student interviewing whilst the other is observing. Swap roles. The interviews can be done in your preferred language. After the interviews, we go into Groups to reflect and talk about the experience.	Lunch at campus Porsgrunn	All together- discussion We gather in National groups where <ul style="list-style-type: none">- the professors follow up their students- we talk about how we proceed when we get back, what is needed before I can interview etc.	Free time	Evening meal at the Hotel
Thursday November 1st	Workshop: Practical Equalities Literacy (Youth culture- marginalisation) Differences and similarities Reflect on our role as researchers	Lunch at Campus Porsgrunn	Workshop: What do I want to write about in my thesis? We use some time to prepare our thesis and to get creative. During the workshop we spend some time working by ourselves, in groups and all of us together.	Talk about the program for our next Face to Face in England in February/March 2019 We spend the morning talking about Student co-creating across national borders - how can it be done and why?	Evening meal at Hotel for all of us.
Friday November 2nd	We discuss Ethics, transcribing, coding Theory and how it's done in practice Time looking at your own thesis	Lunch at Campus Porsgrunn	Going back, saying our farewells		