

FROM A DEMOCRATIC CLASSROOM TO A GLOBAL COMMUNITY

FEATURING JOEL WESTHEIMER AS THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Thursday Nov 7

Time	Activity	Room	Target audience
10:00-10:15	Welcome, relevance of topic	A3502	Teachers, student teachers, teacher educators
10:15-12:30	"Education for Democracy: Teaching and Learning in Globalized Times", Prof. Joel Westheimer.	A3502	Teachers, student teachers, teacher educators
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-16:00	Workshop on "Fostering democratic citizenship in primary schools: from abstract concepts to actions", led by Katrina Herting & Gregory Lynch	U5110	Student teachers
16:00	End of first day

Friday Nov 8

Time	Activity	Room	Target audience
09:15-10:00	"Interdisciplinary work with Democracy & Citizenship in Teacher Education: (How) Is it possible?", Prof. Joel Westheimer	Auditorium A2503	Teacher educators, student teachers
10:00-10:15	Relevance to the new educational reform "Fagfornyelsen LK20", Prof. Heidi Biseth	Auditorium A2503	Teacher educators, student teachers
10:30-12:30	Panel discussion: Research-based democratic education Panelists: Local teacher (to be confirmed) Ashley Mae McDonald (ITEPS student) Kristin Gregers Eriksen (PhD Candidate, USN) Larysa Kolesnyk (Associate Professor, Dragomanov University, Ukraine) Ingrid Christensen (Associate Professor, USN) Joel Westheimer (University Research Chair in Democracy and Education) Moderator: Gregory Lynch, ITEPS student	A3502	Student teachers, teacher educators, teachers
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:30	Research group meeting (Social Studies Education + Diversity and Citizenship in Education)	M5301	Research group members only